'Tis not the weight of jewel or plate,
Or the fondle of silk and fur;
'Tis the spirit in which the gift is rich,
As the gifts of the wise ones were;
And we are not told whose gift was gold
Or whose was the gift of myrrh.

—Edmund Vance Cooke

DESERT PROTECTIVE COUNCIL ELECTS BOARD MEMBERS

For the purpose of extending its activities over the entire Southwest, the Desert Protective Council at its annual meeting in Joshua Tree National Monument late in October voted to increase its board of directors to 15 members and include representatives from Arizona, Nevada and Utah.

New directors elected were Weldon Heald, writer of Tucson; Thomas W. Miller, chairman of the Nevada State Park Commission; Elizabeth Lewis of Fruita, Utah; Dr. Edmund C. Jaeger, naturalist of Riverside, California; Homer Rush of Los Angeles, president of the Cactus and Succulent Society; Parker Severson of the Sierra Club; and Mrs. Josephine Miller of San Clemente, California.

Remaining members of the board are Harry C. James, Lolomi Lodge, San Jacinto mountains; Mrs. Ralph Lutz, Twentynine Palms; Ronald Johnson, Richard Keller and Roderick Leap, Thermal, California; Dr. Henry Weber and Dr. Ernest Tinkham, Indio; and Randall Henderson of Palm Desert.

The Council also changed its by-laws to provide for an executive committee and an executive secretary within the board of directors. Personnel of the new committee will be selected at the first meeting of the board.

The Council reaffirmed its position in opposition to the opening of Joshua Tree monument to mining and commercial roads, and voted to make an award of merit to the individual selected each year for outstanding work on behalf of the conservation and preservation of the desert's natural resources.
